

Students on Boards and Commissions
2015-2016 Application

If you live in the City of Boise and you have an interest in learning how the city works, this is the perfect opportunity to experience, explore, and gain valuable understanding of your city government at work. We invite you to share the student perspective on a board or commission that makes decisions on how the City operates, spends money, and provides the best possible services to the community. Visit <http://mayor.cityofboise.org/boards-and-commissions/> to learn about each board and commission.

Please type or fill out the application by hand in blue or black ink. Use additional paper if necessary. Cover letter and resume are encouraged.
